Our first-floor en-suite accommodation comprises two large rooms sleeping up to three, two double/twin rooms and two single rooms. Additionally, a self-contained ground-floor gîte sleeping up to four includes disabled access/facilities.

Other features include a large communal area, a 70 sq.m. studio/meeting room plus deck, and a 75 sq.m. terrace.

We offer B+B or full-board catering and the entire venue can be booked by large groups, on a self-catering basis if required.

In addition to chambre d'hôte accommodation, our year-round program of organised weeks includes yoga, tai-chi, massage, life-styling and other holistic pursuits.

Also available are weeks of Salsa, walking in the Pyrenees, painting and birdwatching.

Please enquire about the special rates available to group organisers of 10 or more people, wishing to host events at Candeloup.

Whether you come to explore the Jurançon wine region, watch the Tour de France pass by in July or motor racing in the streets of Pau in June, or enjoy some gentle horse-riding in the countryside, there is always something to do near here.

Skiing, white-water, the fabulous Atlantic beaches near Biarritz are all less than an hour away. Explore the Pyrenees with us as your base!
